"Dia de Los Muertos" celebration

Oct. 28 – 30. Novenario procession each night. Call (213) 485-8372 for more information. All events are free to the public.

El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument is near the site of early Los Angeles. El Pueblo is a living museum that continues to fulfill its unique role as the historic and symbolic heart of the city, reflecting the Native American, African American, Spanish, Anglo, Mexican, Chinese, Italian and French cultures that contributed to its early history. Of the monument's twenty-seven historic buildings, eleven are open to the public as businesses or have been restored as museums.

Although it occurs at the same time as Halloween, the celebration of Dia de Los Muertos is a much brighter occasion, with an emphasis on honoring the lives of departed loved ones and celebrating the continuation of life. Enjoy face painting, street theater performances, strolling mariachi bands, Aztec dancers, puppets, ballet folklorico and other fun family activities. Dia De Los Muertos community altars will also be on display in the plaza and in the various shops on Olvera Street. On October 25th, the pre-Columbian Novenario begins. This traditional nine-night candlelight procession evokes special memories of deceased loved ones with colorful pageantry, indigenous blessings, lively music and free refreshments. It culminates on Nov. 2.

El Pueblo Historical Monument and World Famous Olvera Street are centrally located in downtown Los Angeles just north of the Hollywood 101 Freeway two blocks from Los Angeles City Hall.
